COLLECTIVE ACTION ALLEGATIONS

27. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of himself and other employees similarly situated as authorized under the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 216(b). The employees similarly situated are the collective class.
28. Collective Class: All persons who are or have been employed by the Defendants as food preparers, dishwashers, and kitchen workers, or other similarly titled personnel with substantially similar job requirements and pay provisions, who were performing the same sort of functions for Defendants, other than the executive and management positions, who have been subject to Defendants' common practices, policies, programs, procedures, protocols and plans including willfully failing and refusing to pay required overtime wage compensation.

29. Upon information and belief, Defendants employed approximately 20 to 30 employees within the relevant time period who were subjected to similar payment structures.

There are numerous similarly situated current and former employees of Defendants who have been denied overtime pay in violation of the FLSA and NYLL, who would benefit from the issuance of a Court-supervised notice of the present lawsuit, and the opportunity to join the present lawsuit. Those similarly situated employees are known to Defendants and are readily identifiable through Defendants' records.

36. The claims of Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the putative class.
